Christmas Greetings

Ho Ho Ho! Santa Smith here (or is it Dicksaclaus?)

You might have noticed something familiar about the theme of this mailer. 'You save twice: first with my direct import prices, and second because of the incredible discounts in the mailer' . . .

The more astute would be saying 'Hey! You're cheating. That's what you said in the last mailer'.

And you'd be right! There we were, minding our own business with a fantastic mailer printed, inserted in the electronics magazines, and due out in a few days . . . and Mal & John decide to up sales tax: by 100% in some cases!

Well, what could we do? Those who visited our stores would know that we held our prices until the end of September – even though we had to pay the additional sales tax ourselves.

And you showed you appreciated it!

But we were finally forced to increase prices, which meant the mailer had to be ended prematurely. A lot of customers missed out on the bargains.

So I thought 'Let's bring out ANOTHER 'double saving' mailer in November. Even better than the last one!'

So here it is. Bargains galore. We've shot our prices full of holes: so you reap the benefit!

But hurry: even if there isn't another budget to upset this mailer, I'm sure stock won't last long anyway. The prices are too low! And read what Electronics Today said about electronic games (see below). Shows what your chances are if you miss out this Christmas!

Dick Smith

P.S. May you have a happy and safe Christmas, and the New Year bring you prosperity & peace. Season's greetings from myself, my family and all at Dick Smith Electronics.
